32bit. 286. 64bit for 3ds max 2013 32bit...Q:

Why does sorting/grouping by an aggregated column make the original rows appear in their original order? I'm trying to display the results of a query in descending order of a particular column, which produces results in the expected order, but only when I add grouping around the column. Here is a MWE which will display the results in any order: -- use the system catalogs to compile a list of all tables which
